To Whom It May Concern:

Food Bank For New York City serves in a critical capacity by providing food to economically disadvantaged New Yorkers. According to Executive Order 202.6, food banks are deemed essential business and are therefore exempt from the in-person restriction.

Please be advised that the Food Bank For New York City volunteer carrying this document is acting in an essential capacity to make this happen and, as such, will be traveling to and from our facility as needed.

This volunteer is able to provide a confirmation email from Food Bank For New York City confirming their scheduled shift date and time as needed for further verification.

If you have any questions, please contact me using the contact information below.

Thank you,
